If you are getting a family payment from a partner (OPF) this worksheet will help you figure out how to take on a job will affect your weekly income. Step 1: Find out how the income of the job will affect your Family Payment of a country Find your work-valuable income (see Note 1) The admissible income is its gross income less PRSI, contributions to pension and union subscriptions. Note 1 Remove €165 from your weekly earnings (if the winnings are below €165 you will keep your OPF complete). Half of your weekly earnings over €165 is assessed as income. New family payment fee of a pair To find your new OPF fee check SW 19 Social Welfare Payment Fees to find out how much OPF is paid with your means. Step 2: Find your new total gross weekly income Your total weekly income is your new Family Payment fee from a country and your work income before the tax. New payment fee for the family of a country (see Step 1 above) Step 3: Find your new total net weekly income Your total weekly income is your new Family Payment fee from a country and your income from work after the tax. From this calculation you will be able to find out if you are financially better off. Gross weekly incomeLess Universal Social Load - See Note 2 Below Less PRSI Paved each week - See
